Annexure to our letter dated July 20, 2017

Disclosure under Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Reliance Industries Limited (“RIL” or “the Company”) proposes to acquire equity shares of Balaji Telefilms Limited (“BTL”), a listed company which is in the Media and Entertainment industry. BTL, along with its subsidiaries is engaged in production of TV content for broadcasters, production & distribution of films and also operates an over-the-top subscription video on demand platform focusing on original and exclusive Indian digital content.

BTL was incorporated on November 10, 1994 and its equity shares are listed on BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited. It has operations in India. BTL has a paid-up share capital of Rs. 15.2 crore (as on March 31, 2017) and generated turnover of Rs. 421 crore, Rs. 293 crore and Rs. 347 crore in FY 17, FY 16 and FY 15, respectively.

RIL inter alia is engaged in the telecom, digital and media businesses. This investment in content production (including digital content) is in line with RIL's commitment to invest and grow in telecom, digital and media businesses.

RIL proposes to acquire 2.52 crore equity shares of BTL, constituting 24.92% of the post-issue paid-up capital of BTL, through subscription to preferential issue of equity shares by BTL to RIL for cash consideration of Rs. 164 per equity share amounting to an investment of Rs. 413.28 crore.

The investment would not fall within related party transactions, and none of RIL's promoter / promoter group / group companies have any interest in BTL. No government or regulatory approvals are expected to be required for the investment. The transaction is subject to BTL's shareholder's approval and regulatory compliances and other conditions precedent and is expected to be completed in 45 to 60 days.
